Crandon Library News Crandon Public Library celebrates National Preservation Week

The week of April 23 - 29th is designated National Preservation Week and libraries, archives, and museums globally offer events, activities, and resources that highlight what we can do, individually and together, to preserve our personal and shared history.

Preservation Week was created in 2010 because some 630 million items in collecting institutions require immediate attention and care. Eighty percent of these institutions have no paid staff assigned to collections care and 22 percent have no collections care personnel at all. As natural disasters of recent years have taught us, these resources are in jeopardy should a disaster strike. Personal, family, and community collections are equally at risk.

Locally the Crandon Public Library and the Forest County Historical and Genealogical Society have been working together since 2013 to preserve some of Forest County's most precious historical documents and photos to guarantee these resources are protected now and into the future. Some of these historical documents include a scrapbook created by Grace Ross, the daughter of Samuel Shaw, early school records from rural schools no longer in existence, the Park Hotel register, and thousands of pages of historical newspapers and photos.

Recently the Crandon Public Library received a bound ledger book containing over 100 hand written records of Forest County WWI soldiers. We believe that the information contained in the ledger book was originally collected by the Forest County Council of Defense after WWI ended and a memorial book was planned. Unfortunately that book was never published; however, the records themselves contain a wealth of information on our county's veterans and their families and therefore are worthy of preservation and promotion.

These records make up a large percentage of what is now the Crandon Public Library's Local History Archives website located at www.crandonpl.org/archives. The archives website allows students, researchers and community members to view our historical collections from any internet computer. Currently the site contains over 400 fully searchable records and photos with many, many more being scanned and digitized by staff and volunteers of the Crandon Public Library.

If you are interested in helping with this project, or would like more information about the records, please contact Michelle at the library.

Goodman-Armstrong Creek High School named a Wisconsin Title I School of Recognition

- 1 of 6 High Schools in the State

MADISON —178 public schools named Title I Schools of Recognition all have two things in common: high levels of poverty and remarkable successes in educating their students: they are Wisconsin Title I Schools of Recognition for the 2016-17 school year.

"These schools stand out for their efforts to educate our kids," Evers said in a press release. "They are staffed by dedicated educators who work with parents, families, and the school community to support the needs of all kids through rigorous programming and attention to student needs."

The Wisconsin Title I School of Recognition awards highlight schools that have demonstrated success in educating students from low-income families. To be eligible, schools must receive federal Title I funding to provide services to large numbers or high percentages of economically disadvantaged children and meet other achievement criteria. The Goodman-Armstrong Creek High School is one of six high schools to receive the award. Goodman-Armstrong Creek High School was selected for this award because they have significant numbers of students from low-income families and they also meet the state's test-participation, attendance, and dropout goals. Additionally, as a Beating-the-Odds School, Goodman-Armstrong Creek High School met the following criteria:

- are in the top 25 percent of high-poverty schools in the state
- have above-average student achievement in reading and mathematics when compared to schools from similarly sized districts, schools, grade configurations, and poverty levels

Goodman-Armstrong Creek High School will be among the 178 Wisconsin Schools receiving a plaque at a May 1 ceremony at the State Capitol. "I am very proud of our dedicated staff and students. This is a tremendous recognition to be one of only six high schools to receive this award in the state. It speaks great volumes to the education our students are receiving in the district," stated Cory Hinkel, Superintendent/Principal of the Goodman-Armstrong School District.

For Old Time's Sake

Look at these terrible grocery prices! Pineapples at two for 35 cents, and just check out the price of cheese at 19 cents per pound! How can anybody afford to eat at those prices!

We don't know for sure if that is what was said back then, but it is a good guess that this is the way the conversation went. There is still food being sold in this store, but the name over the door is now Subway. This doesn't mean that you should go in there and tell Jeff he is charging outrageous prices! We aren't sure when this picture was taken, but think it was in the late forties, and it was taken by Art Freimuth, who left us a great legacy of photos.

Local students participate in Concert Festival

WAUNAKEE, Wis. (April 19, 2017) – Students from area schools will participate in a Wisconsin School Music Association (WSMA) sanctioned Concert Music Festival hosted at Three Lakes High School on Thursday, May 11, 2017. During the festival, which is free and open to the public, each school's concert ensemble groups will perform before a panel of adjudicators while students from other schools listen in as part of their own learning experience.

The festival will draw concert bands and choirs from a number of area schools, including Crandon High School, Crandon Middle School, Elcho High School, Elcho Junior High School, Florence High School, Florence Middle School, Goodman - Armstrong JHS, Goodman High School, Laona High School, Norway High School, Three Lakes High School, Three Lakes Junior High School, Vulcan Middle School, Wabeno High School, Wabeno Junior High School, White Lake High School and White Lake Jr High School. Mark Pieplow, music director from Three Lakes High School, will be serving as the festival manager.

"WSMA enjoys a long tradition of providing quality music education experiences to over 100,000 students annually. Festivals provide students with an opportunity to enrich their musical abilities and understandings as they perform and receive feedback from qualified adjudicators, and as they observe and listen to the performances of their peers," said WSMA Executive Director Timothy Schaid.

WSMA music festivals support school music programs as part of a comprehensive education by encouraging the study of quality music literature; motivating students to prepare and perform to the best of their abilities; improving students' understanding of music literature and concepts (performance through understanding) and providing a performance assessment to improve individual and group achievement.

School District of Wabeno Area
TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION TEACHER

The School District of Wabeno Area is excited to announce our opening for a technology education teacher! This qualified person will be helping us build and develop the foundation for our new Fabrication Lab. Our community members recently demonstrated the support for our great school district by passing two referendums this spring. We passed an operational referendum in the amount of 1.6 million dollars each year for five years and a $300,000 referendum to begin a fabrication lab in our school district. We are a small, rural school district located in North East Wisconsin.

The fabrication lab would be located in the technology education classroom we currently have in the school district. There may be a need to slightly reorganize the current classroom in order for the equipment to be used properly by the students. Our goal is to offer our students a digital fabrication experience through the use of 3D printers, laser engravers, robotics systems, plasma cutters, welding, and computer numerical control routers (CNC machines) with the assistance of the instructor.

Our new technology education teacher must be able to help Wabeno Area students imagine a project, plan a design for it, create it with the Fab Lab equipment and learn how to implement best designs for high quality projects. This lab will also be open to our community members.

We are excited to work with our new technology teacher to help him/her offer academic and technical content for our students. Our goal is to provide students with the skills and knowledge necessary to earn college credits and the skills necessary for the work force and local business occupations.

The selected candidate must demonstrate a passion for technology education and the advancement of these skills, be committed to strengthening community and student engagement in the area of technology education, and develop strong partnerships with the local business communities.

Our new technology education teacher is required to be licensed in the area of technology education by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. The school district is open to discussions on salary. We are willing to employ the qualified person before the end of this school year so this person can begin building the program with us.

Interested and licensed candidates may apply on WECAN or may submit a letter of interest, resume, transcripts, copy of license(s), and three (3) current letters of reference to: Jennifer Vogler, District Administrator, School District of Wabeno Area, PO Box 460 Wabeno, WI 54566. This position will remain open until filled.

The School District of Wabeno Area is an Equal Opportunity employer. The School District does not discriminate against applicants or employees based on race; age; sex or sexual orientation; creed or religion; color; handicap or disability; marital, citizenship, or veteran status; membership in the National Guard, state defense force, or reserves; national origin or ancestry; arrest or conviction record; use or non-use of lawful products off the District's premises during non-working hours; or any other characteristic protected by law.

Death Notices

Uriah Timothy Jourdan, infant son of Megan Mattock and Tre Swemke. On April 19, 2017, Uriah's short life brought much joy and love to all of his family.

Maternal grandparents, Beth and Harold Zellmer of Crandon; paternal grandmother, Terre Swemke of Wausau; and paternal grandfather, Jammie Ward of Milwaukee.

Uriah will be buried alongside his great grandmother at Northland Memorial Park in Rhinelander. Weber-Hill Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

Frank John Skrzysowski, Jr. age 82, died on April 16, 2017 succumbing to gallbladder and pneumonia complications at TheDaCare Hospital in Appleton. Frank was born to the late Frank Skrzysowski and Rose (Dudek) Skrzysowski on October 18, 1934 in Dupont, Pennsylvania.

Frank graduated from Dupont High School in 1952. He joined the United States Navy and was a Seaman in the Korean Conflict. Upon completion of his Naval active duty, Frank re-enlisted in the United States Air Force. In 1961, while stationed at the Antigo Radar Site, he met his future wife Mary Wilson. Shortly after Lisa was born, Frank was deployed to Vietnam. Once stateside, he was stationed and he retired in Duluth, MN. Crandon then became home.

Frank's career path changed -- he worked for Potawatomi Housing and eventually the United States Postal Service. Always one for his fellow men, he assisted veteran's in acquiring their military benefits and for many years was the VFW Commander. He also assisted Boy Scouts in earning their knots, electrical and gun safety merit badges.

Frank was an avid outdoors man from fishing and hunting to agate searches and canoeing, there wasn't anything he wouldn't try. He enjoyed woodworking, picnics, parades, camping, hiking, berry picking, gardening, bird watching and sunsets. He always had a story, joke or brain teaser to share. He will be greatly missed by those who knew him best.

In addition to his parents, Frank was preceded in death by Mary, his wife of 52 years and his sister, Evelyn Totaro. Survivors include his daughter, Lisa Allred (Curtis); three granddaughters Carly, Kaele and Alanna Allred, all of Crandon; one sister, Rose Ann Skrzysowski of Dupont, PA; two nieces, Lois Miller (Robert) of Hughes Town, PA and Christina Renfer (Ronald) of Moscow, PA; and two grandnephews, Robbie Miller and Ronnie Renfer. He also leaves behind numerous loving relatives and friends.

Visitation was from 10 to 12 p.m. on Friday, April 21 at the Weber-Hill Funeral Home. Funeral services began at 12 p.m. with Don Dewing officiating. Burial was at the Town of Crandon Cemetery. Luncheon followed at LaFetta's Restaurant, Crandon, WI.

Online condolences may be left for the family at www.weberhillfuneralhome.com.

DNR tips for repairing ice-damaged shorelines

WAUSAU, Wis. - As spring weather sets in, some shoreland property owners in Northern Wisconsin are discovering Mother Nature has changed the look of their waterfront due to shifting ice over the winter months.

In some areas, partial thaws and high winds in February created ice heaves that deposited debris, damaged vegetation or reshaped shorelines in unexpected ways. On undeveloped lots, the problem may go unnoticed and the area will typically heal itself and regain vegetation over time. However, on developed lots where summer activity is more frequent, property owners may want to seek relief from a newly discovered pile of earth.

"We had several freeze-thaw cycles combined with high winds this winter that created some significant ice shoves," said Keith Patrick, a waterway and wetland supervisor with the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. "The good news for many property owners is that by following a few simple rules, shoreline repairs can be made to address a newly formed ice ridge without need for state permits."

For example, Patrick said:

The ridge may be leveled on site, provided the soil is kept out of the water or any wetland area. The material should be pulled back away from the water.

No machinery may be operated below the Ordinary High Water Mark or in the waterway.

Current county zoning rules must be followed and vegetation should not be removed from the bank.

The rules are designed to protect the critical transition zones between the land and the deeper water areas. Fish and wildlife depend on the areas for food, cover and travel areas.

The guidelines are for new ice ridges and cannot go beyond the scope of that project. Property owners interested in additional lakeshore work such as grading, rock riprap, tree or vegetation removal must check with the Department of Natural Resources or the local County Zoning Office. For additional information on this issue, property owners are encouraged to contact their county water management specialist. Visit dnr.wi.gov and search "waterway contacts."

Letters to the Editor

We welcome letter to the Editor; however the letters should be legible, in good taste, not libelous and pertinent to current issues. Names will not be withheld upon request, except for very special circumstances. NAME AND PHONE NUMBER SHOULD BE INCLUDED FOR VERIFICATION PURPOSES. We reserve the right to reject any and all letters.

To the Editor:

Have you noticed the sides of roads and highways since the snow melted? Lots of garbage laying in the ditch, wrappers from fast food restaurants, coffee containers, water bottles, soda bottles, beer cans and bottles, (more drinking and driving going on than one realizes), and Styrofoam containers. There is no respect for anyone or anything it seems anymore. Anything goes!

It is totally disgusting. If you take a drive in the National Forest or a County Park, you see the same thing, and there is no one that lives close by for miles of road way, but yet you can see garbage along side the road. TAKE YOUR GARBAGE HOME WITH YOU AND PUT IT IN YOUR TRASH CAN.

How would one like it if someone would toss garbage on their lawn? The roadways belong to everyone. Treat the roadways as if it was Your yard - lets not litter.

Maybe people should have a pen and pad handy in their car, when they see someone litter, get their license plate number and turn them in. It can come in handy.

Wisconsin Do Not Call
 Submitted by Kathy O'Melia

Getting your landline and cell phone number on the Wisconsin Do Not Call Registry is free and available to residential telephone customers in Wisconsin. Sign up for the Do Not Call Registry at NoCall.Wisconsin.gov or 1-888-382-1222. You must call from the telephone number you wish to register.

The Wisconsin Do Not Call program is helpful for reducing (not stopping) unsolicited telemarketing calls and text messages. While the program does not stop all illegal telemarketing calls, the program does help government agencies to crack down on illegal practices from within the United States and Canada.

- Exemptions include calls:
- To current customers
 - From non-profit organizations seeking donations
 - Made for polls, surveys and political purposes
- Tips
- Beware of callers who ask you to send money or buy something sight unseen over the telephone
 - Never give out your credit card number, Social Security number, Medicare number, bank account numbers or other personal or sensitive information to anyone you do not know.
 - Never pay for a "free prize"
 - Do not be rushed into anything
 - If the caller offers to send a messenger to your home to pick up your payment or asks you to wire funds – HANG UP!
 - Beware of "spoofing." Crooks can make any name or number appear on your caller ID – such as your bank, a neighbor, or even your own phone number
 - If the caller asks for payment using money transfers (ie: MoneyGram, Western Union) or asks for the PIN number from a cash reload card (ie: MoneyPak, Vanilla Reload or Reloadit packs) – HANG UP! This is illegal under federal law.

For additional information, visit the Consumer Protection Bureau at <http://datcp.wi.gov>, send an e-mail to datcp@datcp.wi.gov or call the Consumer Protection Hotline at 1-800-422-7128.

Baldwin applauds over $7.5 million Federal investment for Wisconsin to address opioid epidemic

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin today applauded $7,636,938 in federal grant funding provided by the 21st Century Cures Act to help Wisconsin combat the opioid epidemic. Senator Baldwin led the effort to include major investments to fight the opioid epidemic in this bipartisan legislation.

Once the funding became available for application, Senator Baldwin sent a letter to Governor Scott Walker encouraging him to apply for the federal funding and to put these investments to work.

"I've heard from law enforcement, citizens, elected officials on both sides of the aisle and people working on the front lines to combat this crisis across our state. I've also heard the stories from families who have lost loved ones," said Senator Baldwin. "The opioid epidemic is not a partisan issue, and a strong partnership between the federal government and our state is essential to an effective response. This important funding should be a significant step in advancing local prevention, treatment and recovery efforts in Wisconsin."

The funds are provided through State Targeted Response to the Opioid Crisis Grants administered by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA).

Senator Baldwin has traveled across Wisconsin to hold roundtable dialogues on the opioid, heroin and illicit drug use epidemic in Green Bay, La Crosse, Wausau, Viroqua, Ashland, Superior, Eau Claire, Arlington, Waukesha and Milwaukee.

As a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Senator Baldwin is continuing to push for further investments in combating opioid abuse and all substance use disorders.

Crandon Senior Spotlights - Ciara Walentowski

Ciara Walentowski, daughter of Darren and Becky Walentowski, said her best high school memories are prom, homecoming and spending half of her time the last four years in the library. In the past twelve years, she's learned to set goals and work hard towards them, and she's learned that things change and you meet new people and that's okay. She plans to attend Nicolet College this fall to pursue a degree in dental hygiene. She would like to thank her parents for always

Around the Area

From May 1st to May 31st, the Three Lakes Center for the Arts will display an exhibit from "In A New Light", a therapeutic nature photography program at Northwest Passage. Northwest Passage is a residential mental health treatment center in Webster, WI, which empowers youth to discover their potential through art and nature.

This treatment center restores hope to children and families with a philosophy which borrows from the wisdom of the past while combining with current research about the importance of living a full and mindful lifestyle. "In A New Light" emphasizes skilled expressive arts training and nature immersion, ultimately empowering youth to define themselves by their strengths rather than their weaknesses.

On Sat. May 13th from 5 p.m. to 7p.m., the Three Lakes Center for the Arts will host a free artist reception, open to the public, with Ian Karl, the Experimental Programming Coordinator for Northwest Passage, Ltd.

A free screening of the documentary film "Paper Tigers" will follow at 7 p.m. (This film is not rated but has some "language") The director of the film, James Redford, explained, " The film follows six troubled teens over the course of a year at an alternative school in rural Washington, which is considered a last chance before dropping out. Many students come with a history of behavioral problems, truancy and substance abuse. "Paper Tigers" is a testament to what the latest developmental science is proving: That one caring adult can break the cycle of adversity in a young person's life."

Visit the gallery to see the photographs Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and any time the theater is open for films or live events.

For more information visit the Three Lakes Center for the Arts located at 1760 Superior St. in Three Lakes, WI, online at tlcfa.org or by calling 715-546-2299.

April was Safe Digging Month

(MADISON) - Spring has arrived and so has Safe Digging Month. April is recognized by underground utility damage prevention stakeholders as National Safe Digging Month. The Public Service Commission of Wisconsin (PSC) reminds residents and professional excavators to always call 811 before they dig.

"Safety is our top priority and April marks the start of spring digging season," explained PSC Chair Ellen Nowak. "A free call to Wisconsin's Diggers Hotline, at 8-1-1, will notify the appropriate utility companies to mark the underground lines at the excavation location so you can work safely around them."

National Safe Digging Month promotes awareness of safe digging practices across the country and is meant to serve as a reminder to always call 811 before every digging project, large or small, to prevent employee injuries, repair costs, and costly fines, which can occur when an underground gas, electric, communications, water or sewer line is unintentionally hit.

811 is a free, FCC-designated national number that connects callers from anywhere in the country to their local one call center. The one call center will then alert the appropriate underground facility owners so they can dispatch locators to mark the approximate location of their lines with paint or flags, after which professionals and homeowners can dig safely around the marks.
