Some elegant ladies visit Nu-Roc

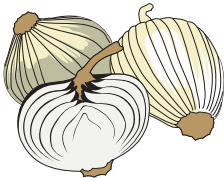

Wabeno Seniors, Hailee Powers and Kassidy Ashbeck took time to visit with the residents at Nu Roc before attending their Prom on April 21st. The residents loved seeing the ladies in their formal gowns. In picture is, L-R, Hailee Powers, June Koehn, Shirley Shampo, Kassidy Ashbeck .

NLC Art Show at Three Lakes Center for the Arts

Three Lakes Wisconsin, Come enjoy the creative talents of Northwoods students on May 3-5 at the Northern Lakes Conference Art Show at the Three Lakes Center for the Arts! The show will include artwork from students throughout the NLC, which includes the districts of Three Lakes, Crandon, Wabeno, Laona, White Lake, Elcho, Pembine, Phelps and Florence. Students will showcase their abilities in drawing, painting, metalsmithing, airbrushing, graphic design and ceramics. "Art can bring us together," said Ameris Grapa, Three Lakes High School art teacher. "At the annual NLC Art Show, students from across the Northwoods work together to display their unique artistic talents. Come out on May 4 to celebrate young creativity, enjoy refreshments and participate in art activities." An opening reception for the show will be held on May 4 at 6 p.m. At that time, visitors can view student artwork, register for prizes, enjoy light refreshments and meet a few of the student artists. The exhibit will also be open from 11 a.m to 3 p.m. on May 3-5. TLCA is located at 1760 Superior St., Three Lakes.

Vidalia Onion Sale

The Shriners of the Northwood Shrine Club are having their annual Vidalia Onion Sale on Friday, May 4, Saturday, May 5, from 9:00 to 4:00 in Schaefer's parking lot in Crandon and at Krist gas station, in Wabeno, on Friday, May 4, from 9:00 to 2:00. The annual event supports the Northwoods Shrine Club, which sends children from our area to Shriner's Children's Hospitals. Presently there are eight children from the Forest, Oneida and Vilas Counties that are going to Shriner hospitals. If you can't make the sale and would like to purchase Vidalia onions that sell for $11 for a 10 pound bag, call Bob May at 715-478-5012 to place an order. Note: these are genuine Vidalia onions. The only time you cry with Vidalia onions is when they are gone!

Wabeno to host district large Group Music Festival

Students from the Northern Lakes Conference schools will participate in a Wisconsin School Music Association (WSMA) sanctioned Large Group Music Festival hosted at Wabeno High School on Thursday, May 10, beginning at 1:30 p.m. and going into the evening. (Wabeno Schools will have an abbreviated day on May 10th, with the Elementary School dismissing at 12:45, and the High School dismissing at 1:00). During the festival, which is free and open to the public, bands and choirs from around the Northern Lakes Conference will perform for three state approved adjudicators, and be evaluated on how well they meet the standards of music performance for their genre.

In memory of Michael Pomasl
Michael will always be remembered as a loving, helpful and humorous person. His love for his family and friends cannot be matched. He loved sports and thoroughly enjoyed the game of golf. He played many rounds at Maplewood Golf Course.

Crandon School Board receives resignation after organization meeting

Brian Tupper swears in Glen Pfeiffer

By Boyd Monte
The Crandon School Board held their organizational meeting on Monday, April 23 in the Crandon High School Auditorium. Glen Pfeiffer was sworn in. Jeff Ackley was elected Board President. Pfeiffer was elected Vice President, Laura Bauknecht was elected Board Clerk and Nadine Westmayer and Brian Tupper were elected Board Directors. The usual business was conducted. After the meeting, a letter of resignation was turned in by Board Director Brian Tupper, effective at 12:01 a.m. on Tuesday, April 24, 2018. The school district will now advertise for anyone who is interested in filling the void. The applicant will also have to give a written statement requesting their consideration. The board will then interview the candidates and will appoint someone at the next regular school board meeting.

Citizens United for Education start to get signatures for Crandon School Board recall

By Boyd Monte
The group Citizens United for Education met on Tuesday, April 24 at the Crandon Public Library. The group announced the resignation of Board Director Brian Tupper. Recall papers were distributed to anyone who wanted them. The group will need to get 563 signatures from registered legal voters in the school district. They need 25 percent of the total votes cast for the office of governor in the last general election. There was 2251 votes cast for the office in the last general election. The group needs to have the signatures turned into the district office 60 days after the day the petition of recall was formally filed. If that day falls on a weekend or holiday, the group has until the next business day, but the signatures cannot be dated before or after the specified 60 day period. The signatures then need to be verified. If there is enough valid signatures, the recall election will take place within 6 weeks. Glen Pfeiffer and Laura Bauknecht were present to listen to concerns and also answer anything that they could to help the citizens group move forward in the changes they want to achieve.

Wabeno receives grants for new town signage

Submitted by Mary Beck
The Friends of Wabeno, thus far, have received grants from the Walmart Foundation, the Elwyn Remington Foundation in Antigo, and a Facebook fundraising effort to create promotional signage in Wabeno. This is the first grant from Walmart and the third from the Remington Foundation. The generosity of these foundations and the individuals who responded to the Facebook fundraiser has truly been appreciated. Promotional signage would create two new Welcome to Wabeno signs, a boardwalk and nature trail mural, and build interpretive signs along the boardwalk. If you would like to learn more about this promotional signage project, please come to the first face-to-face meeting of 2018 on Tuesday, May 1st at 6:00 pm at the Wabeno Town Hall. Other agenda items include; downtown flower pot plantings, fundraising opportunities, and WAM Fest. The Friends of Wabeno hold open meetings, no membership required. If you have ideas or suggestions for community improvements, come to a meeting or contact Mary at mfbeck@charter.net or 608-628-0757 or send a message through the website www.friendsofwabeno.org.

Wabeno Area Players raise over $250 for Wabeno High Choral Department

Wabeno Area Players cast for Third Thursday Theatre.

On Thursday, April 19, 2018 Wabeno Area Players raised over $250 in donations for the Wabeno High School Choral Department. This was held at the Third Thursday Readers Theatre at The Big Easel.
The evening featured comical selections that everyone enjoyed. The theme of the evening was BASEBALL! The baseball season has started and all the selections were about America's Favorite Pastime! You didn't have to be a sports fan to have a great time at this show. All that attended enjoyed a relaxing evening of food, fun and entertainment.
On May 17th and 18th the group will be back again to perform a special Mother's Day Evening of Comedy! For reservations for this upcoming show please call (715) 889-1179.

Hospital Observation Status --What Medicare beneficiaries need to know

Submitted by Kathy O'Melia

People often think that if they if they are in the hospital and stay overnight in a hospital room they are an "inpatient." But that is not always the case. Hospitals provide observation care for patients who are not well enough to go home but not sick enough to be admitted. This care is considered an outpatient service. The hospitalization can include short-term treatment and tests to help doctors decide whether the patient meets the medical criteria for admission. So even if you stay in a hospital overnight you could be considered an outpatient.

Why does it matter? Your hospital status ("inpatient" or "outpatient") affects how much you pay for hospital services (like x-rays, drugs, and lab tests) and may also affect whether Medicare will cover care you get in a skilled nursing facility (SNF) following your hospital stay.

Medicare Part A provides coverage for a hospitalization only when you are an inpatient. If you are in the hospital under observation status you are considered an outpatient and Medicare Part A pays nothing. Medicare Part B covers outpatient hospital services after you pay your deductible, co-insurance and copayments. Generally, this means you pay a copayment for each individual outpatient service you receive.

In addition, be aware that the prescription drugs you get in an outpatient setting, sometimes called "self-administered drugs," aren't covered by Part B. And for safety reasons, many hospitals have policies that don't allow patients to bring prescription drugs from home. If you have Medicare Prescription drug coverage, Part D, these drugs may be covered in certain circumstances. You'll likely need to pay out-of-pocket for these drugs and submit a claim to your drug plan for reimbursement. For further information and to request an "out-of-network pharmacy claim form," be sure to call your Part D plan.

Sometimes observation care extends over two or more days, but remember that does not mean you are an inpatient. If you receive observation services for more than 24 hours, the hospital is required to give you a written notification, known as Medicare Outpatient Observation Notice (MOON), that tells you that you are an outpatient, as well as an oral explanation of the notice and the financial implications.

It is also important to note that your hospital status will determine whether you will be able to obtain Medicare coverage in a nursing home after your hospital stay. Original Medicare only covers skilled nursing home care for patients who have had a three-day "inpatient" hospital stay"observation status" does not count toward the 3-day stay.

More information about Part A and Part B coverage can be found in your "Medicare and You" handbook or by calling 1-800-MEDICARE. For local assistance with Medicare or other benefit programs, contact your ADRC Elder Benefits Specialist, Kathy O'Melia at 800-699-6704.

CWD shows up again in Oneida Co.

MADISON - The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources has confirmed that a wild deer has tested positive for chronic wasting disease in Oneida County, in the Crescent Township.

As required by law, this finding will renew Oneida County's existing baiting and feeding ban for another three years. Additionally, this positive will renew the two-year baiting and feeding ban in Langlade County.

The CWD-positive one-year-old doe was harvested on a disease surveillance permit issued within a 10-mile radius of the recent Lincoln County positive detection. This is Oneida County's first CWD-positive wild deer.

"This Oneida County detection is a direct result of our surveillance efforts put in place in response to the Lincoln CWD positive," said Eric Lobner, DNR Bureau Director for the Wildlife Management program. "We will continue to work with local communities to promote CWD surveillance and awareness in the area."

In response to the detection of this new CWD positive deer, the department will take the following steps:

--Continue to work with the local County Deer Advisory Council members in disease surveillance around this positive location.

--Conduct surveillance activities to assess disease distribution and prevalence including:

--Encourage reporting of sick deer

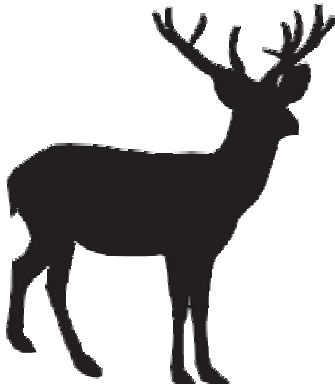

--Sample vehicle-killed adult deer

--Sample adult deer harvested under agricultural damage permits

--Sample adult deer harvested under urban deer hunts in the area

--Establish additional CWD sampling locations prior to the 2018 deer seasons.

These actions are very important for assessing the potential geographic distribution of the disease and if other animals in proximity to the new positive test are infected.

As has been demonstrated in the past in other parts of the state, local citizen involvement in the decision-making process as well as management actions to address this CWD detection will have the greatest potential for success.

For more information regarding baiting and feeding regulations and CWD in Wisconsin, and how to have adult deer tested during the 2018/2019 hunting seasons, visit the department's website, dnr.wi.gov, and search "baiting and feeding" and "CWD sampling" respectively. To report a sick deer on the landscape, search keywords "sick deer" or contact a local wildlife biologist.

Spring fish and wildlife hearing results available

MADISON - More than 6,800 people came out to participate in the 2018 Spring Fish and Wildlife Hearings and Wisconsin Conservation Congress county meetings that were held in every county statewide on Monday, April 9.

The public hearings provide citizens with an opportunity to comment and indicate preference on a wide range of proposed fish and wildlife management issues, Conservation Congress advisory questions, and to submit resolutions for rule changes they would like to see in the future.

Statewide hearing results and the questions are available by searching the DNR website, dnr.wi.gov, for keywords "Spring Hearings."

People voting on the department's wildlife management advisory questions supported restricting the transportation of deer harvested in CWD-affected counties as well as moving the close of the pheasant season daily shooting hours from 2 p.m. to 12 p.m. on stocked public properties.

The majority of voters also favored the idea of reviewing panfish and gamefish regulations on the Mississippi River and reducing the walleye bag limit on the Lake Winnebago system. Participants supported the Wisconsin Conservation Congress' advisory proposals relating to increasing guide license fees and requirements, however, attendees were not in favor of requiring the registration of all non-motorized watercraft.

Meeting results, along with written comments on the evening's questions and DNR recommendations are used to advise the state Natural Resources Board. This year's results will be reviewed at the board's May 23 meeting in Madison. Votes are non-binding and are presented to the Natural Resources Board as a gauge of the public's support or non-support for proposed changes.

The hearings are held annually on the second Monday in April in conjunction with the Wisconsin Conservation Congress county meetings. DNR related proposals are presented to attendees by DNR staff. Following DNR business, the meeting is reconvened as a Conservation Congress meeting and Congress advisory questions are presented.

The Spring Hearings also provide an opportunity for citizens of each county to elect Wisconsin Conservation Congress delegates to represent them on natural resource issues. The Conservation Congress is the only statutorily recognized citizen advisory body to the Natural Resources Board. During the Congress' portion of the hearing, citizens may introduce resolutions for consideration and vote by those attending the hearings.

Death Notices

Bernadine V. Mallow, 89, of Wabeno, WI passed away Wednesday, February 14, 2018 at St. Mary's Hospital in Rhinelander.

Memorial Mass will be held at 11 a.m. on April 28, 2018 at St. Ambrose Catholic Church in Wabeno with Fr. Philip Dinh-Van-Thiep officiating. Visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. to time of service.

Weber-Hill Funeral Home is assisting the family with the arrangements. Online condolences for the family may be directed to www.weberhillfuneralhome.com.

Gene H. Kreienbrink, 83, was taken to his heavenly home on April 17, 2018. He was born in Milwaukee, WI on January 18, 1935 and was baptized at Immanuel Ev. Lutheran Church on March 10, 1935.

While he lived in the same childhood neighborhood as his future wife, their paths never crossed during this time. At the age of 11, Gene; his younger brother, Jack; and his parents, Harry and Minnie Kreienbrink, moved to Wabeno to operate a family dairy farm. He was confirmed at Trinity Ev. Lutheran Church, Wabeno on March 30, 1947, and graduated from Wabeno H.S. in 1952. While at UWM he finally met and later married his loving wife, Marjorie Anne (Heck), on September 7, 1957. Gene and Marjorie were blessed with over 60 years of marriage.

They have five children: Kaye Jean Kielbasa, Gail Joy, Kyle Gene (Jacquie), Kurt (Karen) and Nina (David) Froehling. They were also blessed with four grandchildren, Jared, Kendra, Kailey, and Kaden Gene; six step-grandchildren; a great-grandson, Jameson; and two step-great-grandchildren. He is also survived by other relatives and many friends.

Gene retired from his 31-year career with the US Postal Service in 1992. He started in the Milwaukee Post Office in 1961 as a Substitute Clerk. Thereafter he held many positions, including Methods & Standards Analyst, Distribution Manager and Director of Mail Processing; eventually becoming Postmaster of Minneapolis and Postmaster of Brookfield. Gene was also an active member of the League of Postmasters and a dedicated advocate for the League in Washington D.C.

Gene's faith was the cornerstone of all he did in life. He loved to learn about and serve our Lord. Many of his activities were in service to his home church of 53 years, Trinity Freistadt. Some church activities included the Board of Finance, Male Choir, Bible Study Leader, Congregational President, Stephen Ministry, Church secretary, and the visiting of shut-ins. To better serve his congregation, Gene also faithfully studied and received his certificate to be a Lay Minister. He served on many boards for other regional and national organizations including Lutheran Hour Ministries and Bethesda Communities.

Gene also used his God-given talents of leadership and organization to serve the developmentally disabled community. He served, led and volunteered for many local organizations including Wisconsin ARC (State Director), Ozaukee County ARC (President), Portal Inc., and Balance Inc.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Jack (Suzanne); and his son-in-law, Robert Kielbasa.

A noon service will be held at Trinity Ev. Lutheran Church, Freistadt in Mequon on Saturday, April 28 with visitation from 9:30 a.m. until time of service. Memorials to Trinity or Portal Inc. are appreciated.

Lorraine M. Johnson, 87, of Wabeno, WI passed away Sunday, April 22, 2018 at The Bay at Nu Roc. Lorraine was born March 9, 1931 in Wabeno, the daughter of Alexander and Elsie (Molitz) Bath. She married Hubert Johnson June 26, 1948 and they spent their married life on their farm in the township of Freedom near Wabeno. Hubert preceded her in death in 1980.

She was a mother of nine children, Elaine (Ken) Miljour of LaMirada, CA, Mary (Jack) Antonuk of Rhinelander, Donna (Dennis) Larsen of Wabeno, Wayne (Deb) Johnson of Waupaca, Nancy (Greg) Long of St. Peters, MO, Deb (Greg) Stauber of Laona, Hubert (Paula) Johnson Jr. of Laona, Steve (That Woman) Johnson of Portland, OR and Lisa (Patrick) Johnson of Oshkosh; 24 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; and brothers, Lawrence Bath, LeRoy (Carol) Bath and Fred Bath.

Join us for a remembrance gathering at Dennis and Donna residence on Sunday, April 29, 2018 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Weber-Hill Funeral Home is assisting the family with the arrangements. Online condolences for the family may be directed to www.weberhillfuneralhome.com.

Letters to the Editor

We welcome letter to the Editor; however the letters should be legible, in good taste, not libelous and pertinent to current issues. Names will not be withheld upon request, except for very special circumstances. NAME AND PHONE NUMBER SHOULD BE INCLUDED FOR VERIFICATION PURPOSES. We reserve the right to reject any and all letters.

Dear Editor,

The Forest County zoning committee has worked sporadically over the past year or two in an attempt to meet a state mandated requirement to revise the county shoreland zoning ordinance.

Unfortunately, the final product isn't pretty. What has for over forty years been an uncomplicated shoreland component of an overall zoning ordinance has now become an unnecessarily complicated, discombobulated, stand-alone document that arbitrarily assigns each property to one of eight various districts around and adjacent to Forest County waterways. It gives certain privileges to some landowners and disallows them for others, some could say arbitrarily, according to a master map kept in the county zoning office. The document has yet to meet DNR's approval, but was hurriedly passed as a late agenda add-on for the new county board's organizational meeting. Kudos to our new county board chairman and a few independent thinking board newcomers for their vote against this embarrassing document.

The required public hearing for this change, had been inconveniently scheduled and minimally noticed for a mid-March weekday evening. Landowners whose properties will be re-zoned under this ordinance (which is every landowner within 1000 feet of a lake and 300 feet of a stream) were not individually notified of the hearing. Few, if any, of the snowbird lake folks and the weekenders, who pay significant property taxes, knew their properties would be rezoned. Most hadn't a clue that a hearing had even been scheduled. It was an obvious success for those who wanted to sneak this through; a total of one member of the public reportedly showed up at that important hearing.

Oneida County, on the other hand, went through their drill and diligently worked on revisions for well over two years. Several drafts were revised as a result of testimony at six well publicized public hearings before their final product was submitted to DNR for review and approved in 2017. This is a property value issue. It's important. They understood that.

So now it behooves everyone in the previous single shoreland zone to visit the zoning office and determine which of the eight new categories has been selected on your behalf, then check the map and check your neighbors' classifications which might be different from yours. The eight new categories are listed on page 48 of the new document. (I paid $5.80 for my copy at the zoning office.) And, page 49 will tell you how many chickens and ducks you may keep. Really.

PIONEER EXPRESS PAGE 5, APRIL 30, 2018

To the Editor:

Yes, Wisconsin! Even as we shovel our way out of April, the reality of global warming persists. In fact, it is the very reality of climate change which provoked the unseasonable resurgence of our mittens and muffs. How so? According to the Climate Analysis Section at the National Center for Atmospheric Research, our recent spring storm system stems from the Arctic's warm-up. The above average temperatures there weaken the jet stream and allow for more weather extremes.

Climatologists report that changes in the jet streams which usually flow from west to east, are closely tied to global warming. There is a great deal of evidence that the North and South poles are warming faster than the remainder of the planet. These changes particularly affect the polar currents. Their ups and downs become more extreme, bringing different types of weather to areas that are not accustomed to climate variations. If the jet stream dips south, for example, it takes the colder air masses with it. The result? Winter-like conditions occurring in the Midwest when we should be planning our gardens.

Oconto County 2018 Youth Summer Camp

Oconto County UW-Extension is proud to announce a partnership with Leon H. and Clymene M. Bond Foundation, Inc. for its 2018 Summer Youth Camp Program at Camp U-Nah-Li-Ya. Jenny Hanna, Bond Foundation board member, stated, "The Bond Foundation is excited to partner with the Oconto County 4-H & Youth Summer Camp Program to offer area youth an exciting and educational experience at Camp U-Nah-Li-Ya. This program offers our youth a chance to unplug, all while enjoying the great outdoors. We are very happy we can be part of such a wonderful program."

The Bond Foundation has generously offered more than $7,000 in funding towards transportation, camp counselor training, activity supplies, chaperone fees as well as funding towards a camper well-being specialist. Most significantly, the funding will allow camper fees to remain at $150 per camper, as in the past few years - a savings of $25 per camper. Another major impact of the partnership is funding towards scholarships to families who may not be able to afford the fees. This scholarship would cover all camper registration fees. Arvilla Rusnak, UW-Extension Camp Coordinator, said "Our program at Camp U-Nah-Li-Ya would not have been possible without the generosity of the Bond Foundation. We are looking forward to an exciting new experience this year."

The summer camp program is open to all Oconto County youth in 3rd-6th grade as of the 2017-2018 school year. It will be held June 13-16 at Camp U-Nah-Li-Ya on beautiful Chute Pond in Mountain. The program will include hiking, boating, kayaking, paddle boarding, fishing, swimming, archery, arts & crafts, games, a camper talent show and nightly campfire entertainment. The cost is $150 per camper. 4-H members attend at $75 per camper due to a discount covered by the Oconto County 4-H Leaders Association. To request an application for the Bond Foundation scholarship, receive a camp brochure and questions about the summer camp program, contact UW-Extension at (920) 834-6846 or 4h@co.oconto.wi.us. Registration is open now at <https://goo.gl/forms/Ov12tV9BDtecAA9X2>. The registration deadline is May 12th.

Nicolet College summer Robotics Camp to focus on building STEM skills

Parents and their tech-minded teenagers may want to check out Nicolet College's Robotics Camp June 18 to 21 for students entering grades 9 through 11.

Camp will run from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday in the White Pine Center. Cost is $30, which includes lunch each day.

"Students will learn all aspects of building a working robot," said camp instructor Adam Schmidt, Technology and Engineering teacher at Rhinelanders High School and advisor to the Rhinelanders Robotics Club.

"This includes designing, programming, building, and operating the sophisticated robot. This camp is perfect for students who love to tinker, love programming or design, or simply have an imaginative mind and like to explore new things."

Students will also be introduced to drone aircraft operation and have the opportunity to fly a quadcopter, Schmidt added.

The skills participants will learn in the camp are the basis for some of the most rapidly growing careers in the nation, particularly those in science, technology, engineering and math, said Nicolet College Dual Credit Coordinator Sarah Gruber.

"There's a very significant shortage today for workers with solid STEM skills," Gruber explained. "And demand for people with these skills is expected to stay strong well into the foreseeable future. These are high-quality, high-paying jobs."

The camp is subsidized by a grant from the AMN-NW Gold Collar Careers and Collaborative Efforts in Manufacturing initiative in conjunction with the Wisconsin Technical College System

Seating is limited with students admitted on a first-come, first-served basis. Registration deadline is Friday, June 1.

For more information about the camp, and to register, visit nicoletcollege.edu/robot or call the college at (715) 365-4493, 1-800-544-3039, ext. 4493; TTY 1-800-947-3529 or 711. Questions can also be directed to careercoach@nicoletcollege.edu.

Both Glen and Laura were there as concerned citizens of the school district, they did not represent the board.

Glen said that he and Mr. Andy Space went up to the district office and reviewed Andy's personnel file. They found that the preliminary non renewal of Andy's contract was drafted on January 17th, but information was given on the 20th of January of why there was a non renewal. Glen said that the reasons for non-renewal should have been documented before the non-renewal was given. There was no evaluation in his file. There were 12 reasons for non-renewal, when the news received it, there were 15 reason. There was nothing in the file that said there was a problem until January 20th. Glen also said that he requested a closed session on next months meeting to review contracts of administration as a board. Glen also stated that he would ask to re-instate Andy after closed session was concluded. He ended with asking the public to give input on any issue.

Communication between the public and the board was the next topic, a sub committee was started by the school board and anyone that is interested in serving on that board can contact the district office.

Policy needs to be updated. On the agenda is talk about a five year plan for the district. Everybody agreed that a new policy book needs to be drafted. Laura Bauknecht said that it is an ongoing process. Every two years the policies are updated.

The next Citizens United for Education meeting will be on Tuesday, May 1st at 7 p.m at the Crandon Public Library.

WSMA music festivals annually attract thousands of students from middle, junior high and high schools throughout Wisconsin. The festival will draw student from a number of area schools, including Crandon, Elcho, Florence, Goodman, Laona, Wabeno, and White Lake. Mary Ellen Keller, K-12 Vocal Music Educator from Wabeno schools, will be serving as the festival manager.

"We are very excited to host this annual Festival and provide the learners in our area the opportunity to demonstrate how much they have grown this year," said Keller. "This also takes many volunteers to make it run smoothly. We are grateful for the support of the staff and administration of Wabeno for all the help they will be providing." If you are also interested in helping, please contact Ms. Keller at the High School before Sunday, May 6th.

"WSMA enjoys a long tradition of providing quality music education experiences to over 100,000 students annually. Festivals provide students with an opportunity to enrich their musical abilities and understandings as they perform and receive feedback from qualified adjudicators, and as they observe and listen to the performances of their peers," said WSMA Executive Director Timothy Schaid.

WSMA music festivals support school music programs as part of a comprehensive education by encouraging the study of quality music literature; motivating students to prepare and perform to the best of their abilities; improving students' understanding of music literature and concepts (performance through understanding) and providing a performance assessment to improve individual and group achievement.

BOARD MEETING

UW-Extension and WCA offer training for new county officials

Following the spring elections in even numbered years, UW-Extension's Local Government Center and the Wisconsin Counties Association co-sponsor day-long County Officials Workshops to orient both new and continuing county officials, at seven locations around the state.

In May 2018, topics will include the roles and responsibilities of county board supervisors, the county budgeting process, Wisconsin's open meetings law and public records law, ethics and conflicts of interest, running effective meetings, and state and county issues update. The workshops connect county governments with the expertise of educators from UW-Extension and the Wisconsin Counties Association, who make sure the topics and teaching methods stay current and meet participant needs.

Forest County board members may be interested to know about the May 9th session in nearby Minocqua, the May 10th session in Green Bay or the final session offered in Stevens Point on May 23rd. For more information on County Officials Workshops and other resources provided by the UW-Extension Local Government Center, please visit <http://forest.uwex.edu>.

The UW-Extension Local Government Center is a program of the University of Wisconsin-Extension, Cooperative Extension in partnership with state, federal and county government in each Wisconsin county.

Baldwin and Bill Cassidy introduce legislation to halt the flow of fentanyl to the U.S.

The RESTRICT Illicit Drugs Act was included in the bipartisan Opioid Crisis Response Act that passed the Senate Health Committee today and moves to the full Senate

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Senators Tammy Baldwin (D-WI) and Bill Cassidy (R-LA) of the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Committee, today introduced bipartisan legislation to stop the flow of illegal opioids, fentanyl, methamphetamine and other illicit drugs into the country through International Mail Facilities. The Restricting Entrance and Strengthening the Requirements on Import Controls for Trafficking (RESTRICT) Illicit Drugs Act would give the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) more tools to prevent illegal fentanyl, opioids and other illicit synthetic drugs from entering the country at the border through our International Mail Facilities.

“The opioid epidemic is devastating families and communities throughout Wisconsin and a key way to help prevent this is to stop more illicit drugs like fentanyl, meth and illegal opioids from coming into this country. I’m introducing this commonsense bipartisan legislation with Senator Cassidy to strengthen our control over the flow of illicit drugs from other countries into America,” said Senator Baldwin. “One of my top priorities for Wisconsin right now is increasing the federal investment to help fight the opioid crisis, and making sure we are doing everything we can to help local health and law enforcement officials in Wisconsin with prevention, treatment and recovery efforts.”

In 2016, 63,632 Americans died from drug overdoses and according to the CDC, the increase in overdose deaths is driven largely by deaths from synthetic opioids and illicit fentanyl. Reports show that the synthetic opioid related overdose death rate more than doubled in 2016. China is the primary source of fentanyl in the U.S. with many of these illicit drugs coming through our International Mail Facilities (IMFs). More than 340 million packages reach the U.S. every year through IMFs from more than 180 countries. However, estimates show that we are only intercepting a small percentage of the illicit drugs smuggled through IMFs.

The legislation was included as part of the bipartisan legislative package, the Opioid Crisis Response Act of 2018, to bolster the federal response to the opioid epidemic that successfully passed out of the Senate HELP Committee today.

The RESTRICT Illicit Drugs Act modernizes FDA's authority to help address importation of illegal drugs like opioids and other synthetic drugs by:

- Strengthening coordination and efficiency between FDA and CBP by clarifying CBP's role in managing the admission, refusal or destruction process of any counterfeit drug product or package containing a controlled substance.
- Allowing FDA to debar, or stop, individuals or companies convicted of an FDA-related felony from continued shipments to prevent companies who have been caught shipping illegal substances from gaming the system and operating under a new name.
- Enhancing FDA's authority to refuse admission of illegal drugs from entities that have been de-barred, as a result of an FDA-related felony.

2. Oversee reports regarding student attendance and truancy.

B. Policies and Procedures

1. Coordinate and supervise District safety protocols.
2. Assist in formulation of school policies consistent with District policies.
3. Develop school schedules within District guidelines.
4. Report data and records required by the Board of Education and/or District Administration.

C. Curriculum and Instruction:

1. Coordinate activities to ensure a positive school climate and positive relationships between the staff to ensure student achievement.
2. Plan and implement activities to promote and ensure student and staff safety.

D. Personnel and Supervision:

1. Participate in the selection process of all building staff and appoint other building staff to serve on screening and interview panels.
2. Determine assignments of the staff within their own building.
3. Orient new teachers to the building, in conjunction with the New Teacher onboarding program.
4. Monitor substitute teacher necessity for the continued operation of the school.
5. Assist in assigning the duties of the non-certified employees in the building.
6. Supervise and evaluate certified and non-certified staff assigned to the school.

E. Complaint Resolution:

1. Receive, investigate, mediate and process student discipline referrals.
2. Receive and coordinate appropriate procedures to address harassment or discrimination complaints with District Administration.
3. Participate in the receipt, investigation, mediation, and other processes related to staff complaints.

Hospice volunteers needed

Hospice is about living each day to the fullest. It's about helping individuals dying of terminal illness live each day in a pain-free environment, with dignity and peace. As a hospice volunteer, you can be a part of this incredible journey.

Compassionate volunteers are currently needed throughout the Rhinelander, Tomahawk, Merrill and Crandon region. Volunteers provide support to hospice patients and their loved ones in their homes, nursing homes, and other residential care facilities. There are also opportunities to get involved in outreach and fundraising for the hospice program, and to assist the professional team with clerical duties.

Ascension At Home – Hospice Services, will provide their free 6 session volunteer training Tuesdays (May 15, 22, 29) and Thursdays, (May 17, 24, 31), 9 a.m. - Noon at Ascension Good Samaritan Hospital (DeAngelis Room) located at 601 S. Center Avenue in Merrill.

This comprehensive training provides the foundation of knowledge and skill needed to provide support to patients and their families. Ongoing support and training opportunities are provided throughout a volunteer's tenure.

Hospice volunteers are special men and women! While caring for others, you can find new meaning in your own life, gain greater self-knowledge, and experience satisfaction from making a difference in people's lives. As a result, volunteers often become more focused on the parts of life that matter most.

There is no charge. To register, please call Melissa Houg at 800.643.4663.

Make each day count...become a hospice volunteer.

I would like to thank all who helped make my surprise 80th birthday party a huge success and a day I will never forget. To those friends and family who traveled near and far to celebrate with me. I think you from the bottom of my heart. It was a wonderful day filled with great food, great friends and great family. A special thanks to my family and May's Bar for hosting the party, to Sally Lyons for taking pictures and to ALL who helped make the day perfect with food, flowers, gifts and cards. You are all special and I love you all!

Patsy Wilson

Only a Memory

Marilyn Conn

March 7, 1953 – April 24, 2016

Your smile, your laughter
Only a memory.
Your voice, your personality
Only a memory.
Sometimes people mention your name.
Some just keep quiet.
But no matter what is or isn't said.
You're always on someone's mind.
Two years have gone by,
But it seems like only yesterday,
You were by your family's side.
We can only think of who you'd be,
To us, you only remain a memory.
It's been a while since you've been gone,
For your friends and family, things just aren't the same.
It still doesn't seem real.
Who holds the blame?
If love could have saved you,
You'd still be here today.
The love we hold for you,
Will never change.
As you lay in a still rest,
God broke our hearts to prove he took the best.
Everything you did, everything you were.
It's only a memory.
We Miss You.
Love, Your Pelican Elementary Family

For Old Time's Sake

When the new courthouse was built back in 1909, there was an unintended gain. The local photographers had a great place to get aerial shots of the City of Crandon. This picture was taken by a photographer whose name is lost in time, but he obviously found a high perch in the dome and shot this picture to the northwest. It was taken sometime between the years 1908 and 1911. We know this because the stage area of the opera house shows up as a big black box in the photo. The opera house was built in 1908 and burned in February of 1912, so this narrows down the time frame.

Many of the buildings that are in the picture are still in use today, providing goods and services to people and giving the town a nice vintage look. It would be nice to know how many of the trees in the courthouse square are in this nice old photo.

It is also interesting to notice how small the community was at this time by looking at how close the edge of town was to Lake Avenue. Crandon was still growing when this picture was taken.

Nicolet Players' "A Midsummer Night's Dream" spans the generations

Making the leap from high school productions to community theater with the Nicolet Players to perform A Midsummer Night's Dream was more than a little intimidating for Adam Bloom and Somerset Seymer, who are 16 and 15, respectively.

"Every other play I was in was with my friends I went to school with," said Bloom, a junior at Rhinelander High School. "There was a comfort level there. I pretty much knew what to expect."

Ditto for Seymer, a sophomore at Northland Pines High School in Eagle River.

"Nerve wracking," is how she described the transition. "I was used to being in plays with fairly close friends who I saw all the time. Now there's this group of complete strangers."

Nicolet College Theatre Director Jim Nuttall has been putting together plays at Nicolet for more than 20 years. He's seen this dynamic before.

"They go from being in plays with only kids their own age to now sharing the stage with just about every age group, including people old enough to be their grandparents," Nuttall said. "That's a pretty big leap. But over time, you see this common bond form. Everybody supports one another, they learn from one another, and that's when they really start to gel."

With more than a month of rehearsals for A Midsummer Night's Dream behind them, both Bloom and Seymer said they are finding their groove and appreciating the tips the veteran actors share with them as they work through scenes.

"It's really nice to learn from people who have been doing this a long time," Seymer said. "Even something as simple as moving from one side of the stage to the other, there's an art to it."

And move a lot they do. Bloom and Seymer play opposite each other as the young couple Lysander and Hermia in this classic Shakespeare comedy.

"There are a lot of different ways to put on this play," Nuttall said. "We're doing a very physical adaptation. It's very dynamic with lots of action. It's definitely not stand-and-deliver Shakespeare."

When close to 30 high school students auditioned for a dozen parts for younger individuals, Nuttall said he recognized an "energy" between the two.

"Somerset is a real fireball and Adam is really great playing off of that," he said. "It's hilarious to watch those two go at it, the back and forth and this little magical world they create."

Their parts in the play revolve around four young lovers who find themselves wrapped in the dream-like arms of an enchanted forest. Sprites and fairies rule the woods, casting spells and sprinkling magic dust to stir the pot of love.

Seymer said in many ways she can relate to her character, seeing herself in many of Hermia's traits.

"I try to be a fairly calm person," she said. "But it doesn't always work out that way. I like how Hermia is so headstrong, opinionated and can have a very quick temper. It's a lot of fun."

Bloom is also enjoying perfecting his character. "I like how my character can be serious, comedic, and clueless all at the same time," he said. "There's a lot of room for interpretation with the character and it's exciting to put on this face of someone who you are not."

The cast of 21 includes individuals from many parts of the Northwoods, including Tomahawk, Crandon, Minocqua, St. Germain and Cavour, along with Rhinelander and Eagle River.

Performances in the Nicolet College Theatre are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, May 4 and 5, and Thursday through Saturday, May 10 through 12. Sunday performances May 6 and 13 will take place at 2 p.m.

Tickets are $9 general admission and $7 for students and seniors and can be ordered at nicoletlive.com or by calling (715) 365-4646.

Beer and wine and other refreshments will be available before the performance and during the intermission.

Forest County 4-H feed the birds

On Sunday, April 22nd, members of Forest County's 4-H program celebrated Earth Day by creating migratory bird "care packages" and spending some much needed time outdoors enjoying beautiful spring weather.

Forest County 4-H's plan was to originally feature an "Earth Day Bird Quest" led by local Bird Nerds Mary and Tim Maertz; however, due to the snowy weather conditions the week previous, our Earth Day event became a "Feed the Birds" so that we could offer our help to the migratory birds that have recently returned to Forest County to discover their food sources were covered in two feet of snow.

Forest County 4-H youth, as well as a handful of community members, spent time creating care packages that contained frozen blueberries, craisins, pieces of suet and mealworms.

Some of the care packages were deposited at the Palmer park walking path, while other packages returned home with the youth. Participants also enjoyed a short-guided walk with a few birds spotted and identified. The event ended with a recap of what activities each of the 4-H members could offer to celebrate our Earth every day of the year.
