Conservation Corner

CITIZEN MONITORING NETWORK PROJECTS

Conservation Corner is a weekly article produced by the Forest County Land Conservation-Land Information Department. For more information, contact Al Murray, County Conservationist-Land Information/GIS Director, at 715-478-1387 or by e-mail at lcc@co.forest.wi.us.

Good news in the Land Conservation-Land Information Department: the full County Board has approved a technician level position to be hired to assist with our projects. This position will be supported through a combination of grants from various sources of which LCC has consistently applied for and received. The position should be officially posted to the County website by the time of this printing. Interested candidates are encouraged to apply.

Our department and the LCC-LI Committee recently completed a work plan required for our DATCP grant. This work plan includes new items that will be of interest to the readers of this article. In 2019 we will be creating a system for tracking conservation work and monitoring completed informally by many residents of Forest County. We will also be completing projects to expand this important work. At the state level this project is known as "The Citizen Monitoring Network." Two projects that we hope to work with are surface water quality monitoring and "Loon Watch."

Under surface water quality, we want to collect data related to water chemistry, water clarity, and ice on/ice off. There are many lake associations which do this work already. It is important for this data to be collected by the County to allow us to monitor changes and prioritize grant applications and projects to respond to changes. It is also important to expand this process to include more of the lakes and streams so we can establish baseline data for future observations.

"Loon Watch" is a project that is also already undertaken by many of our lakeside residents and is an official program of Lakeland College. Currently there is a 4-H project to establish this type of project at Silver Lake. The department hopes to gain grant funding to bring training to Forest County to establish additional "Loon Rangers" which collect data regarding loons and track loon success on our lakes. This data will also be collected and available on a county wide level.

If your or anyone you know collects data for projects above, please contact our office so we can include your efforts in the county wide effort. Also, we want to establish a listing of interested people as we move forward.

Spring seems to finally have arrived as provided by the following evidence: my dog has already started his spring hunt for baby rabbits that have been recently born, robins and other springtime birds have arrived and our swans, geese and ducks have started breeding and nesting rituals. I hope our readers have a Happy Easter, enjoy our spring. We deserve it following last winter.

The Lake Metonga 10 Year Management Plan

About every ten years the WDNR requires lakes requesting grants to complete a comprehensive planning document that current and future teams can reference and draw from in their decision making process.

For Lake Metonga, that year is 2019. The first step in the process is to develop a survey which will be sent to stakeholders owning property on or deeded access to the lake. A diverse group of eight volunteers answered the call to serve on the Survey Planning Committee.

That committee met a number of times in January to build that survey which was sent to WDNR for approval. After a few adjustments between the committee and WDNR, the survey is now ready to be sent to the stakeholders for completion, which they will receive the end of April. The survey is not a cookie cutter, but rather was prepared to address specific issues of Lake Metonga. The goal of the committee is to have 100% return, which will give them a better vision of stakeholders concerns and needs.

There will be two ways to complete the survey, online or a paper copy. The survey will be returned to a third party for analysis, which assures that the responses remain anonymous.

Please watch your mail for this survey and complete it ASAP, so not to forget as your opinion is very important for the future of Lake Metonga.

For more information about the plan and survey, please to go our website, www.lakemetongawi.org and click on "Winter 2019 Newsletter." While you're there, check out the eagle nest cam which is expecting chicks about April 21.

Shriner's Club to hold vidalia onion sale

The Shriners of the Northwoods Shrine Club are having a vidalia onion sale, along with many vidalia onion salad dressings. The sale will be held Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Rhinleander, Eagle River, Crandon, Minocqua, St. Germain, Three Lakes, Tomahawk and Lake Tomahawk at various outdoor locations. Look for their signs.

This annual event supports their club, which sends needy children from our area to Shriner's Children's hospitals and allows the club to donate to them.

Nicolet Nursing Instructor Gatton earns Nurse Educator distinction

Nicolet College Nursing Instructor Amy Gatton recently received the distinguished Nurse Educator certification from the National League for Nursing, recognizing her specialized knowledge, skills, and excellence in teaching.

"This is a well-deserved endorsement of Amy's high level of professionalism and teaching expertise," said Nicolet Dean of Health Occupations Candy Dailey. "The certification process covers a broad range of competencies. This demonstrates to students and health care employers in the region that Nicolet provides a high level of instruction that results in graduates being well-prepared for the workforce and ready to deliver a high level of care to patients."

The certification process covers a broad range of topics that include, in part, effective teaching in classroom, lab, and clinical settings, developing curriculum and accurately evaluating student skills, integrating professional nursing values and behaviors into the curriculum, and continuing scholarship in the profession to stay current with advancements.

Gatton joined the Nicolet Health Occupations faculty in 2016, teaching in the Nursing Assistant program before joining the Associate Degree Nursing faculty in the fall of 2018.

She holds an associate's of applied science degree in nursing from Nicolet, a bachelor's of science in nursing from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, and a master's of science in nursing from Concordia University.

Before joining Nicolet as an instructor, she worked as a Public Health Nurse in Forest County and also worked for eight years a Nursing Assistant instructor with the Blackwell Job Corp.

Crandon Senior Spotlights - Erika Kern

Erika Kern, daughter of Jesse Kern and Kim Kern, said a high school memory that she can remember would be writing a ten-page research paper on Hamlet, because in middle school she could write seven-to-ten page papers of a creative story. She has never been able to write a research paper for ten pages. An accomplishment that she is quite proud of would be when she received an award her junior year for psychology. Unfortunately, she didn't believe psychology best suited her or her interests.

She has learned many things in the past twelve years. First thing being that mathematics is not her strongest subject. Secondly, she has learned a lot about famous authors, some of them have inspired her. This next one is not exactly school related, but has helped her: she recently discovered Ava Max, and her music has helped her concentrate better. She finds that her song "So am I" is really relatable. She also learned how to be more sociable.

Her future school plans are to go to Nicolet, then transfer over to another college like UW-Superior. Her future career plans are to write books for a living, and maybe become an English teacher.

She would love to thank each and every one of the school staff, because – let's be real here – they deserve it. She would also like to thank her parents for giving birth to their little miracle.

The Plein Air Competition begins any time after 8am and ends at 2 p.m. with awards being given later in the afternoon. This year there is an increased and guaranteed purse for both the professional and the emerging artist categories. The art works will be for sale until 5 p.m. If you are a fine art painter who wishes to compete in the Plein Air Competition, please find the application form on the WAM Fest Home page.

The Folk-Art Market will be right off the main street on a closed-to-traffic town block across from the Band Shell. Workshops will be in a storefront and the legion on main street. People who attend can look, buy and learn from the artists' booth displays or workshops. The Folk-Art Market and workshops run from 12 noon 5 pm. Folk or traditional artists who wish to share their art at WAM Fest, please fill out the application which you will find on the same home page. A selection committee will review applications for artistic quality; traditionalism of the art form/art and role or use of the art form/art work in the artist's community. Check the home page for folk and traditional artists already registered to learn more about this part of the event. There are no booth fees for the Folk-Art Market but voluntary donations to WAM Fest are welcomed. The folk art sold at Folk Art Market should have a foundation of traditional folk art. Tourist trinkets or crafts are not accepted. Traditional folk art may evolve over time in materials, methods, design and/or products used. Collaboration between artists working in different traditions will also be considered. If you have questions, email mbeck@charter.net.

WAM Fest strives to provide something for everyone! Each year WAM Fest attracts hundreds of visitors (folk art enthusiasts, families and people of all ages) who come from miles around. Friends of Wabeno, a local non-profit organization plans and executes the event. Friends of Wabeno is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization whose mission is to engage in community development activities and improve the quality of life for all residents of Wabeno and neighboring communities.

Crandon Senior Spotlights - Trevor Hefter

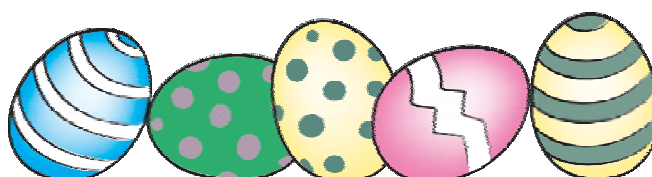

Trevor Hefter, son of Steve Hefter and Karen Hefter, said his best high school memories were all of the times that he and his friends went hunting together. Also, he enjoyed playing high school baseball. His biggest accomplishment was maintaining a 4.0 GPA throughout high school.

In the past twelve years, he learned that the key to success is a good work ethic. In addition, he has learned to spend time with friends and family before it is too late.

After Nicolet, he plans on attending UW-Green Bay, majoring in either environmental engineering or water resources.

He would like to thank all of his family, especially his mom and dad. Without their support, he wouldn't have been able to accomplish half of the things he did.

TOWN OF LINCOLN
 Thank you so very much for your Vote of support on Election Day.
 I will continue to do a GREAT job
