CJ Greaves wins big at The Big House

TORC: The Off-Road Championship presented by AMSOIL capped another incredible season of short-course off-road racing on Saturday at Crandon International Off-Road Raceway.

CJ Greaves was the big winner this season, taking home both the PRO 4WD and PRO 2WD TORC Series titles for the second year in a row with a pair of Crandon podiums. Kyle Hart finished second in Saturday's Atturo Tires PRO Light race to lock down his first-ever TORC Series title.

And the TORC Series awarded PRO UTV championships for the first time as record fields took to the historic Crandon track.

PRO 4WD

It was CJ Greaves who topped the championship standings after 13 rounds of close PRO 4WD competition this season, but his father Johnny Greaves earned the win on Saturday in a nail-biter of a finish. Father and son battled side-by-side to the line, with the elder Greaves taking the win by a scant .088 seconds.

Said CJ Greaves at the finish: "We came through the pack and made a couple good moves and once I got by my dad, I said: 'Alright, let's go!'"

Johnny Greaves got the holeshot while CJ Greaves bobbled, and had to make his way through the pack from fifth. He was up to second by the competition yellow and, on the restart, it was Greaves vs. Greaves to the line.

"We can't ask for a better battle," said Johnny Greaves after the race. "I know he's a little bit better than me, but I still know I'm good enough to hold him off, and I just gotta cover the right lines and not make mistakes."

Local driver Keegan Kincaid wins PRO 2WD in front of a hometown Crandon crowd. (PHOTO: TORC Series)

PRO 2WD

CJ Greaves arrived in Crandon with the PRO 2WD title in hand, after locking down the championship win last month at The Dirt Track at Charlotte Motor Speedway. But Keegan Kincaid didn't let down his hometown crowd and earned the final race win of the season. He took the holeshot and led the race to the checkers. Visiting driver Patrick Clark rounded out the podium, finishing in third.

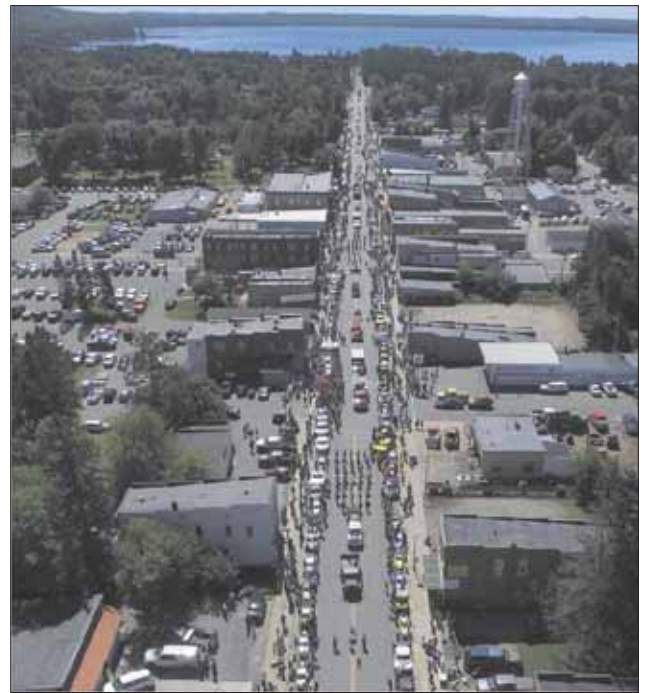

"The sun was getting brutal," said Kincaid. "We knew we just had to be consistent and I knew we couldn't make a mistake with CJ behind me. We just laid down consistent laps."

Arie Luyendyk Jr's season of bad luck continued as he was caught up in a big wreck in the land rush start that ended his day within seconds of the green flag.
ATTURO TIRE PRO LIGHT

Strong work all season meant Kyle Hart had the Atturo Tires PRO Light title as soon as his wheels crossed the start line on Saturday, but that didn't stop him from being a part of one of the most thrilling finishes in the history of The Big House.

The main event begins at 9:00 a.m. and runs until 3:00 p.m. The admission is free, and the enjoyment will last throughout the year.

Goodman-Armstrong Creek Plans Dedication of Playground

The Goodman Armstrong Creek Playground Committee will be holding a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony at the playground's new large play structure on Saturday, September 17th, 2016 at 11 a.m. after the Homecoming parade. During this time, we will recognize all of our generous donors along with all the great volunteers who have helped make our playground a safe and fun environment.

Following the ceremony the "Root Beer & Brushes" canvas painting fundraiser will be held. The cost is $10 per participant which includes all necessary materials. Participants will take their art work home. Pre-registration is encouraged as a limited amount of walk-in canvas' will be available. For registration forms or questions, please email: gacplayground@gmail.com. All proceeds will go toward playground improvements.

A sampler of the Race Parade

One of the highlights of the parade was finding out that Cliff Flannery, one of the leaders at CIORA, is running for president. Most would agree that Trump and Hillary aren't giving the voters much of a choice, so Cliff is a breath of fresh air. It's about time we had a president who could skid pulpwood, run a grader and a bulldozer, handle a chainsaw and the crowds at the race track.

As can be seen, Trump and Hillary are already on Cliff's wagon. They are probably tired of this election too!

It might not be much for looks, but it's hell for stout! This favorite of the parades through the years doesn't ride real smooth and the paint job isn't eye-catching, but we like it.

High octane drinks were popular with the crowd. A few reportedly belched smoke and fire later in the day, but it reportedly tasted good.

You can't have a parade in the Northwoods without logging machinery! These two Ponsse machines can cut and skid more wood than ten people could just a few years back. They also help sponsor the races!

Has religion failed you?

We think religion is to provide answers to life's problems and help in time of need. But for many, religion and "the church" has failed them. Dry, dead, stale religion never helps anyone. So what is "the church"?

State Sen. Tom Tiffany (R-Hazelhurst) and Rep. Adam Jarchow (R-Balsam Lake) have announced additional speakers for the Great Lakes Wolf Summit, which is set to be held at Das Lach Haus, 1788 Elm St., Cumberland, on Thursday, September 15, starting at 8:30 a.m. The summit will bring together concerned citizens, policymakers and sportsmen from Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin to discuss wolf management.

Tiffany and Jarchow recently announced the addition of speakers Kurt Thiede, deputy director of the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, and Bruce Mahler, the Marenisco, Mich., police chief.

Prior to the appointment as deputy director, Thiede was the division administrator for the DNR Land Division for four years. He began his career with the department in the wildlife management program as an LTE in 1999. In his time with the agency, he has served as the wildlife management regulation and policy specialist, the DNR liaison to the Wisconsin Conservation Congress and a customer service and licensing program supervisor for southern Wisconsin. Thiede has a Bachelor of Science Degree in wildlife biology from UW-Stevens Point. Thiede and his wife, Keri, live near Lake Wisconsin with their three children, Claire, Andrew and Logan. When not working he enjoys hunting, fishing, camping, canoeing, hiking and family outdoor adventures in Wisconsin's countless natural places.

Mahler is the Marenisco, Mich., police chief for Marenisco Township located in Gogebic County in the western Upper Peninsula of Michigan. It the second largest township in the state of Michigan with a population of approximately 700.

Mahler has been with the Marenisco Police Department since 2004. When problems such as wolves roaming in town arises, he is the one who answers the call. For a township the size of Marenisco -- 336 square miles -- that can be challenging. He has been working with state and local officials to ensure the safety of the community, as well as the proper management of the wolf population in the UP.

Previously announced speakers are Ted Lyon, author of "The Real Wolf"; David Ruid, wildlife biologist at USDA-APHIS wildlife services; and Don Peay, founder of Sportsmen for Fish and Wildlife.

The Great Lakes Wolf Summit is a free event.

It was a thrilling three-wide Atturo Tire PRO Light finish in Crandon. (PHOTO: TORC Series)

Travis Dinsmore got it by a nose in a three-wide finish with Hart and Kyle Kleiman, who came into the final weekend of the season on a four-race hot streak.
"We had a tight finish there and [Hart] gave me a nasty little punt there after the checker, but here we are in the No. 1 spot and we're good with that," said Dinsmore after the race.
The three podium finishers ended the race the way they started, as Dinsmore took the holeshot over Hart. Last year's Crandon winner Cam Reimers and 2010 class champion Casey Currie battled for third in the first couple laps, but Kleiman held them off to the podium.

THANK YOU & PERSONALS

Thank You, Thank You

Once again, the Trump Lake Protective Association wishes to thank all of the businesses in Crandon, Laona, Wabeno, Carter, Townsend and Lakewood who donated prizes, equipment, sawdust, ice, porta potties, and cash that made the 2016 Walleye Fundraiser another success! To the volunteers who picked up prizes, did setup/clean-up, and worked the event, a hearty thank you! And, finally, to all who attended, we appreciate your support and hope you had as much fun as we did. Hope to see you next year.

Thank you all!

Happy Birthday Matilda!

We love you always!

From NiiJii, Lata, Moca and Ronda

THANK YOU

The Crandon Area Rescue squad would like to thank the Forest County Sheriff Department and dispatchers, Crandon and Antigo Police Department for their help and protection last weekend.

Unfortunately, once again the ambulance service was under attack by the uncontrolled crowd at the Brush Run and was assaulted on a town road.

While responding to a call for someone who needed rescue, the crew and ambulance was met by a crowd of campers throwing beer cans and objects at and hitting the responding unit.

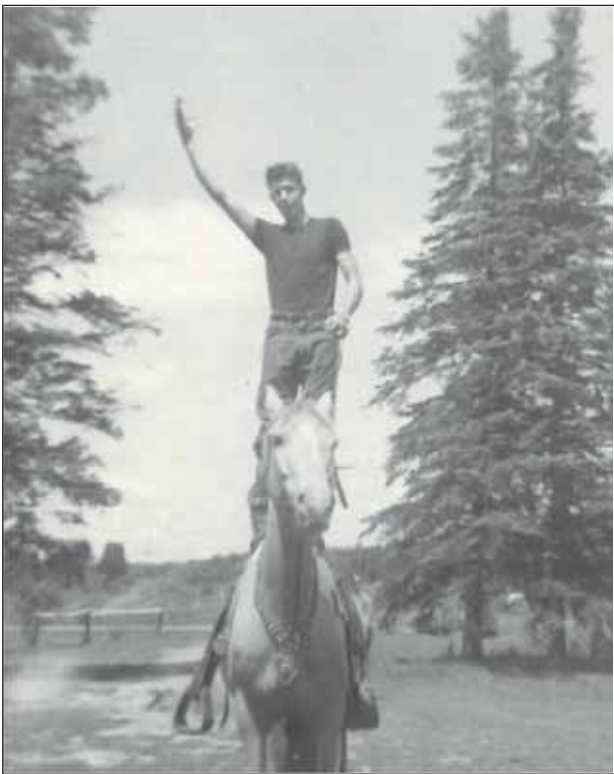

Dispatch was called and officers responded. They assisted in finding the patient and hauling said patient to the ambulance. Without the officers' help and protection, we could never have gotten to the patient.

Once again, Thank you
Crandon Area Rescue Squad

THANK YOU

Thank you for another successful Crandon Youth Football season. Thanks and appreciation to the participating parents, Crandon School District, coaches, janitorial staff and Eats & Treats for their contribution.

For only $10 a space, crafters can sell their goods in an 8 X 10 outside space. Vendors will need to supply their own tables, etc. There are only ten spaces available so people attending the Oktoberfest will have time to check out all ten displays. On a nice sunny fall day as many as 250 people will walk through the beer garden and browse at the crafts that are for sale.

The event includes a meat raffle, hay rides through the area, pumpkins for kids to decorate, and music, all topped off with a delicious meal of roasted pig and German side dishes. For more information and to reserve your craft space, please contact Cassie at (715) 276-6196.

Nicolet College Hire Up event Sept. 16 focuses on helping veterans succeed

Making the transition from a war zone to the world of work or the college classroom is often a challenging proposition for military veterans.

David Chrisinger is an expert on the subject and has worked with countless veterans to help smooth re-entry into civilian life. He'll share insights he's garnered to aid this process during a special Hire Up presentation from 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. Friday, September 16, in the Northwoods Center at Nicolet College.

“Some of the biggest challenges veterans face are isolation and being disengaged when they get back home,” said Chrisinger, an associate lecturer at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point and instructor for the course he created, Back from the Front.

He also served as editor of a recently-released book See Me For Who I Am, a collection of 20 stories written by student veterans, most of them from northern and central Wisconsin.

“For many veterans, they’re much more comfortable writing about their experiences than they are talking about them,” said Chrisinger, a Rhinelander native. “What I’ve tried to do is give veterans a platform to do this, to express themselves and to let civilians know what their military experience was like.”

The presentation, which is free and open to the public, will focus on how employers and education professionals can better understand veterans’ perspective and also offer approaches and strategies that are useful in helping them make the transition to a new chapter in their lives.

Chrisinger teaches graduate students at the Bloomberg School of Public Health at Johns Hopkins University and serves as a senior communications specialist at the U.S. Government Accountability Office.

He also started the popular website Stronger at Broken Places for student veterans to write about and share their military experiences.

The Hire Up event at Nicolet will start with check-in at 8:30 a.m., Chrisinger’s presentation Lessons I’ve Learned about Reintegration from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., and a question and answer session from 10:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. No registration is necessary.

For more information, contact Nicolet at (715) 365-4905 or TTY 800-947-3529 or 711.

INSURANCE TIP ARE YOU PREPARED FOR THUNDER STORMS

How about flooding? Are you prepared, if that should happen? All types of storms more severe. Are you prepared for an emergency?

1. Do you know First Aid?
2. Do you have a plan, which includes where to go in the event of a tornado?
3. Do you have a supply of water and other necessities?
4. Do you have an escape plan in case of fire?
5. Do you check your fire alarms and carbon monoxide detectors annually?

Of course all of these things have a direct effect on your increasing homeowner's insurance rates. Call us if your rates have taken a big rate increase. We may be able to save you money with one of our quality companies.
